For Government Control.

He admits the benefits of long combinations of capital up to certain limits, but declares that beyond these limits they lose their benefits, as far as the people are concerned. He says that the proposed merger of the Boston & Maine, and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, is a case in point. THEY TRIP THE LIGHT FANTASTIC TOE

When Woman Weeps

By Ella Wheeler Wilcox

(In Charles H. Brown's musical satire, "The Beauty Trust.")

WHEN woman weeps the heart of man grows tender
 Tho' she may be capricious, vain and wrong;
 His only thought is quickly to surrender,
 His only wish to go forth and defend her,
 Poor, fragile flower, and he so strong, so strong,
 When woman weeps, when woman weeps.

When woman weeps, tho' by her tears confessing
Her weakness and unreason, it may be,
Man gives her absolution and his blessing.
Then begs her pardon and with sweet caressing
He dries the tears it hurts his heart to see,
When woman weeps, when woman weeps.
